

Music at Berwick Parish Church

At 2.00pm on Saturday 24th January, we are hosting a public masterclass given by the operatic soprano, Yvonne Barclay, featuring soprano Sarah Moore and tenor Cameron Robertson. This is the fourth event in the Berwick Music Society series. This is a rare opportunity to hear two accomplished singers being guided by a singer with international experience.

Following on from the masterclass, Sarah Moore is giving a coffee concert at 11.30am on Saturday 31st January. She has very graciously agreed to step in to replace the cello concert.

A walk with a coastal wildlife ranger along our nearest beach.

Space for Shorebirds, Northumberland Council's wildlife ranger service has arranged an event especially for our congregation, but numbers are limited.

On Tuesday 20th January at 10.00am they will meet us at Little Beach car park for a gentle stroll along the beach to introduce us to the migratory birds that visit our shores at this time of year.

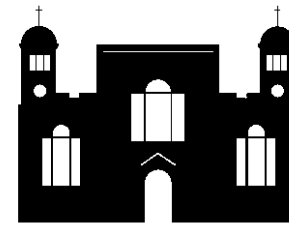

There will be time to stop and look out for birds, with telescopes and binoculars provided. Dogs are very welcome providing owners are happy to keep them by their side while watching the birds.

If you are interested, please see Sue Phillips or Anne Horne. Numbers are limited to about 12 people.

January 2026

I am absolutely not doing dry January ... so don't ask me! It always strikes me as odd that in what feels the darkest and longest month of the year, we voluntarily make it more miserable. Not to mention the fact that it is still Christmas! I don't do New Year's resolutions, or new health fads or anything like that, because even though the calendar has changed nothing else has really.

In the Church year January is the Epiphany season, for some the continuation of Christmas, when we celebrate the light of Christ being made known to the whole world. The Feast of the Epiphany is when we mark the Wise Men arriving with their gifts and over the next few weeks, we think about how Christ is made known in other ways.

It is an ancient tradition in this season to mark our houses with blessed chalk as a sign of them being places where Christ might be made known. It's also traditional for priests to offer house blessings in the Epiphany season, which I'm more than happy to do, my contact details are below. Houses, extensions, new kitchens, gardens, allotments, businesses, all can benefit from a moment of marking how important they are to our lives and our community. Some people have a small blessing, others invite friends and family and have food and drink. However you might want to do it let me encourage you to think about it!

None of us know what 2026 holds for us, our community or the world, but we know that we don't go into it alone or without the light of Christ. So let me encourage you to find whatever brings you light this coming month and enjoy it!

With my love and prayers
